Kobrovsky Wins Tea Party Straw Poll

MYRTLE BEACH, SC – On Thursday, May 13th, the Myrtle Beach Tea Party held its third event for First Congressional District candidates in six weeks. At the conclusion of this one, a debate between the candidates, the group held a straw poll.

With 196 ballots cast, Larry Kobrovsky emerged as the commanding first place winner. Several attendees noted that with each of his answers he included references to the U.S. Constitution.

In all three public events sponsored by the grassroots group, President Luke Towery noted that Kobrovsky also espouses the principles of limited government, fiscal responsibility, and reduced taxation. Towery added that Kobrovsky has further distinguished himself by regularly announcing his support for FairTax and his intent to self-impose a term limit of six years.

Each straw poll ballot had three votes. Participants were asked to mark their top three favorite candidates. There were 196 ballots cast with a total of 588 votes.
